

(10.15) What if the school district fails to provide transition services that are listed in the IEP or ITP?

When the school district fails to provide transition services which are written in the student's IEP, a parent, individual, public agency or organization can file a complaint with the California Department of Education. The California Code of Regulations [5 C.C.R. Sec. 4650(a)(7)(D).] See Chapter 6, Information on Due Process Hearings/Compliance Complaints.